

TAKE FIVE

Set just a road away from the palm-fringed beach of Cape Town's Camps Bay, Sea Five boutique guesthouse is a stylish bolt hole for travellers who prefer an intimate escape to an impersonal five-star hotel. Interior designer Francois du Plessis (see Bedtime Stories on page 34) ensured comfort is the priority, using a muted palette of textured neutrals and natural finishes. From the large bar for in-house cocktail parties to oversized feather cushions, Sea Five is geared towards making the most of lazy summer days and nights. seafive.co.za
