

Sun, sea and linguine

As if you needed another reason to visit Camps Bay... Sea Five is the most recent addition to the string of luxury guesthouses for which the suburb is renowned. The creative collaboration between interior designer Francois Du Plessis and Nicolò Stortiglione Pudel, the Italian-born director of the guesthouse, sees Sea Five successfully fusing a Mediterranean aesthetic with an urban African feel. Situated 300m from the beach, Sea Five offers eight exclusive en-suite rooms, all with sweeping views of the mountain and ocean. The upstairs rooms have private terraces; the garden suites open onto a secluded oasis; while the lavish penthouse enjoys 360° vistas of the surroundings. The Italian panache extends to satisfying guests' palates, with a traditional Italian menu accented with home-grown produce picked fresh from the aromatic vegetable and herb garden. +27 (0)21 438 0743, www.seafive.co.za

exhibition
This month you can visit Magazine stand at the following exhibitions: The Property Expo: 12-14 Feb.; The Natural Products Exhibition: 19-21 Feb.
The Design Indaba: 26-28 Feb.
Cape Town International Convention Centre

Just
dri
Ro
Wi of
in Sa
un